

Thales FIDO Security Keys Portfolio

Enhanced Security & Trust

Thales has long been acknowledged as a cybersecurity expert, allowing the company to possess its own crypto library and oversee the manufacturing cycle to deliver high-quality, phishing-resistant MFA security keys that support the manufacturing sector, financial services, and public administrations.

Learn More

One Answer to Enterprise Security Challenges

Thales FIDO devices provide the largest of use cases, wherever you are logging to web apps & windows from mobile, laptops and desktops, Thales security keys can support enterprise journey starting from supporting PKI CBA to converged badges with physical and digital access.

Scalable & Flexible Deployment

To accelerate large deployment in enterprise, Thales offers customizable FIDO security keys in multiple form factor options such as NFC and bio. Combined with powerful Thales management tools, these devices can easily integrate within a wide range of 3rd parties Identity Platforms like Microsoft, OKTA and PING...

Simplify Compliance & Certification

Thales FIDO security keys are designed to comply with global security standards, ensuring that organizations can meet rigorous regulatory requirements (U2F, FIDO2, FIPS, CC) certified. Thales security keys comply with US fed and UE cybersecurity regulations and is TAA compliant.

Thales FIDO Security Keys Portfolio